IS A FELONY TO STEAL MOTOR CAR

CRIME CHANGED FROM A MISDEMEANOR TO A FELONY RECENTLY.

M'CAFFREY TO BE FIRM

Says That all Convicted of Theft of Motor Vehicles "Will Get the Limit."

Prosecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey today issues a warning to those inclined to steal automobiles. Drastic steps are to be taken soon to put an end to theft of cars and all persons found guilty will be given the limit in the matter of punishment.

The laws of Missouri relating to penalties attached to the stealing of motor cars, were changed by the last legislature. The section dealing with this part of the law reads:

"Any person using, operating, driving, injuring, tampering with a motor vehicle shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years, or both such fine and imprisonment."

The above section differs from the old statute in that the crime of automobile theft is made a felony instead of a misdemeanor, which raises the punishment to a penitentiary offense and much greater in the eyes of the law.

Another section of the law, regarding altering of factory numbers, reads:

Whoever removes, defaces, covers, alters, or destroys the manufacturer's serial number, or any distinguishing number or identification mark of any motor vehicle for the purpose of misinterpreting the identity of such motor vehicle, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years, or by a fine not exceeding $500, or by confinement in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

There are many other provisions in the amended statute that make the stealing and driving of cars without the consent of the owner an offense that can be punished by penitentiary sentence and heavy fines.

The authorities over the state are making ready to get people who persist in taking cars that are not their own and are not going to show the least bit of leniency in the matter of giving the culprits the greatest punishment the law allows.

WHEAT ACREAGE UNCERTAIN

Price Guarantee Expires This Year—Drouth Makes Plowing Difficult

Jefferson City, Aug. 20.—According to Jewell Mayes, secretary of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, there is much uncertainty at this time as to the acreage of wheat that will be planted this fall in Missouri. Expiration of the guarantee of the government price this year and the present difficult conditions of preparing the ground for seeding are factors in the uncertainty. The drouth has made plowing in some sections difficult except where tractors are used under stimulus of the guarantee and the call for increased production an unprecedented acreage was planted in the fall of 1918. There will be a great falling off this year in the acreage.

G. O. P. CONGRESS FAILS TO ACT

THREE MONTHS WITHOUT ACTION ON IMPORTANT LEGISLATION

DID NOT EARN A REST

Nevertheless, the Republican House Members Were Very Eager to Take Vacation.

Washington, D. C.—By their vote to adjourn for five weeks, Republican leaders of the House of Representatives have called the country's attention to the failure of Congress to legislate upon any of the vital problems which President Wilson recommended for action in his message last May—including his proposal for a new labor program leading to genuine cooperation and partnership based on a community of interest and participation in the control of industry.

On the very eve of the recess which they contemplated, Republican leaders emphasized their unwillingness or their inability to respond to popular demands and necessities by blocking a resolution introduced by Representative Igoe (Democrat) to authorize an investigation into the high cost of living. Speaker Gillett and Floor Leader Mondell acted in concert to prevent the adoption of the resolution.

President Wilson's letter to Speaker Gillett, Majority Leader Mondell and Chairman Esch of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce urging them to continue the sessions of the House that action might be taken with respect to the railroads and the high cost of living brought them to grudging compliance coupled with criticism. The recess of five weeks was abandoned, but instead the House was adjourned for three days, during which the inquiry suggested by Representative Igoe was delayed.

Hadn't Earned a Vacation.

When the Republicans voted to take their "vacation," the kind and extent of the labors by which the House of Representatives had earned the right to rest at once became the subject of inquiry. There was a general call for an accounting. It became plain that Congress—and would have been enpractically the only bills which had passed were those which could have been passed in the last session of Congress—and would have been enacted but for the Republican filibuster in the Senate last March.

The public harked back to President Wilson's message. It was found that none of his recommendations had been embodied in legislation. The needs and the opportunity presented to the Republicans in this message were great indeed, but the majority in Congress has done nothing to translate them into law.

Here are the salient proposals addressed by President Wilson to a majority which had been clamoring for an extra session and a chance to begin "reconstruction":

A new labor program contemplating genuine co-operation and partnership based on a community of interest in industry and participation in control.

Legislation for the solution of the railroad problem.

Revision of war taxation, particularly the abolition of manufacturers'

GEORGE W. BUTLER HELD FOR FORGERY

SIGNED NAME OF R. L. BROWN TO CHECKS

"NEEDED THE MONEY"

Defendant Was on Parole From Former Offense—He Has Been in Other Serious Scrapes

Charged with forgery, George W. Butler will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge W. L. Johnson tomorrow morning at nine o'clock on a charge preferred by R. L. Brown.

Two checks were forged by the defendant, one for $24.80 being cashed by the Montgomery Shoe company on August 11 and another for $18.50 cashed by F. P. Reuillard on the same date. The first check is the one specified in the charge. Both were First National bank checks made payable to himself, and bore the forged signature of R. L. Brown.

According to the prosecuting witness, Butler had done some work for him recently and had about twenty dollars due him. Brown had been out of town and on his return offered to pay Butler what was due. Butler then confessed that he had "needed the money" and had forged the checks, but promised to make them good, saying that he was working at Behm's restaurant and would have the money soon. On investigation Brown found that Butler had not and had never been employed at the restaurant. He at once reported the matter to the authorities and Butler was arrested yesterday afternoon.

Butler has a police record already, having ben convicted two years ago of operating a motor car without the owner's consent. He was fined $500 at that time but was paroled by Judge Dawson. The parole was revoked today. It was on the technical charge of breaking parole that he was detained while investigations were made on the forgery charge.

In addition to forging the checks, on Brown, Butler attempted about two weeks ago to cash a check on the Farmers Trust Company where he did not have an account. This check was cashed by the Superior Cleaning company, but has been made good.

Butler has been mixed up in several other serious scrapes in this vicinity and in other parts of the country. He is married and has one child.

The defendant's father, Charles Butler, will arrive tonight from Iowa and will be present at the hearing tomorrow morning.

GLOBE-TROTTER AND PROSPECTOR HERE

A. C. LANGAN OF NEW YORK IS GUEST OF UNCLE

IS A WORLD TRAVELER

Was With Scott on North Pole Expedition and Was in Berlin When World War Broke Out

A. C. Langan, globe trotter, explorer, soldier of fortune, is the guest today of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Langan, and his cousin, Miss Grace Langan, at the Langan home on West Second street, arriving last night from the oil fields of Oklahoma and Texas.

Mr. Langan is a confirmed traveler, having crossed the ocean twenty-one times and visited in all parts of the world. In an interview with a Democrat-Forum reporter this morning Mr. Langan talked interestingly of his experiences in thirty years of world travel.

"I was in Berlin in August, 1914, when the war broke out, arriving there from St. Petersburg only a few days before the news came," said Mr. Langan. "I worked my way through the German lines to Brest, and from there to Paris, remaining there until the the great German advance when they came within a few miles of Paris. Then I came to London and from there to the United States. Americans were treated very well in the warring countries in those early days of the war."

Mr. Langan has only recently returned from South America, where he was in command of a trading expedition to secure platinum, of which the country is in serious need. "This was the most thrilling of my many experiences," said the explorer. "I had two vessels when I left New York. We ran into a hurricane off Key West, and the larger of the two vessels, our cargo ship, was lost. She went down in twenty minutes and nothing was saved except the crew. In the other vessel, a smaller boat than that used by Jack London in his famous trip across the ocean, we battled the hurricane for seven days, finally landing safely, after traveling more than 5,000 miles in a boat large enough only for passengers provisions and coal."

Mr. Langan was returning from a trip to South America when the armistice was signed. His ship, the Heredia, was the first in more than a year to enter New York Harbor with lights ablaze. New York newspapers made prominent mention of this at the time.

When questioned as to the sentiment on the league of nations, Mr. Langan gave it as his opinion that the league in its present form is better than nothing, though there will still be hard sledding for the peace makers. In regard to hostile feeling in Japan, he branded these reports as jingoism, pure and simple.

Speaking of his experiences as a prospector Mr. Langan said, "I have been in every mining camp in the country and in the midst of every oil boom. I was the first prospector to put down my stakes at Rawhide. Things panned out well until the big fire, when all my buildings, the electric light plant, and other enterprises in which I was interested, were destroyed. We went over the hill broke. Merely one of the ups and downs in the prospecor's life."

The prespector-globe trotter started his roving career early. At the age of twelve he "hit the road" and in the succeeding thirty years has been all over the world. He has "crossed the water" twenty-one times, and has been from South America almost to the North Pole. He was second in command on Captain Scott's famous northern expedition, which penetrated eighty-four degrees north. The expedition rescued the lost expedition of Capt. John Bartlett.

Mr. Langan comes from a family of pioneers. Both his father, Jim Langan, and his uncle, William Langan of this city, were in the westward migration in '61. A brother, Owen, is also a rover, being in the mining camps at Tonapah, Nevada, at present, and a sister lives in Honolula.

Mr. Langan left this afternoon for a visit to the newly opened oil fields in Oklahoma and Texas.

Miss Craig Departs.

Miss Laura Craig left last Friday for Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will begin her second year in social service work. She will be joined in a few weeks by her mother, Mrs. Gallatin Craig, and brother, Albert Craig.

NO OBJECTIONS TO RESERVATIONISTS

WILSON MEETS THE REPUBLICAN SENATORS ON THEIR GROUND

PRESIDENT DELAYS TRIP

Will Not Start on Speaking Tour Until Foreign Relations Committee Reports on Treaty

Washington, Aug. 20 — President Wilson has given his approval of substance of reservations urged by the group of Republican mild reservationists. Senator Pittman, administration Democrat member of the foreign relations committee, declared this afternoon in the Senate that in stating to the committee at the White House yesterday he had no objections to the interpretations, if they were not embodied in the ratification of the resolution." Thepresident has met the reservationists more than half way," Pittman said.

It was said in White House circles today that the date on which President Wilson will start on his proposed speaking tour now depends to a great extent upon how soon the senate foreign relations committee reports on the peace treaty.

It is reported that the president is unwilling to leave Washington until the treaty is reported on by the committee.

CLOSE IN ON MEXICAN BANDITS

EIGHTH CAVALRY NEARS RENDEZVOUS OF KIDNAPPERS

CAPTURE IS EXPECTED

Marauding Band Has Been Located by U. S. Army Aviators Acting as Scouts

El Paso, Aug. 20.—With the band of Mexicans who kidnapped two American aviators reported spotted by U. S. army fliers acting as scouts, troops of the Eighth cavalry are now believed to be closing in on the bandit rendezvous, and word of the capture or killing of the entire band is expected hourly at Marfa, according to word received here today.

It was reported that the bandits were seen near Candelaria, Texas, by aviators. It was reported that the aviators dropped several bombs on the fleeing bandits, but the report has not been verified.

Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 20.—An American machine gunner kiled one Mexican bandit and wounded a second today when several Mexicans fired at his airplane, twenty miles south of Marfa, Texas. The killing of the Mexican was reported in a telegram received by General Dickman, commanding the Southern department, from Colonel Langhorne, who is directing the movement of the soldiers in Mexico. The aviator reported that when the Mexicans fired on him he returned their fire, killing one, wounding one and driving the others to refuge. Several of the shots fired by the Mexicans pierced the wings of the airplane.

ILLINOIS MAN SAYS HE LOST FORTY POUNDS

Gets It All Back and Gains Exactly Five Pounds More By Taking Tanlac

"This Tanlac has almost made a new man of me and all my friends and neighbors for blocks around will tell you the same thing," said J. A. Smith, a well known Galesburg man.

"Twenty-eight years ago," continued Mr. Smith in describing his case, "I began to lose my appetite and have slight attacks of indigestion. My head ached now and then and some nights my sleep was disturbed by rehumatic pains, I paid little attention to these symptons then, thinking I would soon throw them off, but I have wished a thousand times since that I had, for I certainly paid dearly for neglecting them, later on my stomach got in such a bad shape that I could hardly eat anything without bloating all up with gas and having pains that almost took my breath away. Then the rheumatism which I had been now and then for several years,. started up right. I suffered so that I couldn't rest at night and my knees hurt me so bad that I would have to sit around for days at a time and rub with hot liniments trying to get a little ease. Pains like a bad tootache would shoot through my shoulders and finally I was forced to stop work. I was making good money as line-man for the Western Union Telegraph Company and hated to give up my job, but I simply couldn't stand up under the work any longer. In fact, I was out of fix all over and just about as sick and run-down as a man gets to be, and I venture to say that during those twenty-eight years I paid out all of six thousand dollars for medicines that did me no more good than that much water.

"Up to the time I began taking Tanlac I had lost forty pounds in weight, but I have gotten every pound of that back and five pounds besides, and I am now as strong and well as I have been in thirty years. I can sit down and eat as big a meal as I ever could and I am absolutely free from all pain. Even the rehumatism is gone and I don't believe anyone could feel much better than I do."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Carter Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. SURPLUS SUGAR SOLD FOR DOMESTIC NEEDS

Washington, Aug. 20.—Transfer of approximately 35,000,000 pounds of sugar to the sugar equalization board for domestic consumption has been announced by the war department. This amount represents the surplus army supply at this time and is in addition to 21,000,000 pounds transferred to the board early in July. The war department will receive 8.79 cents per pound, the cost price of the sugar. The transfer was made with the stipulation that none of it should be sold for export.

All details of establishing a price and the allocation and distribution of the sugar will be handled by the sugar equalization board, a branch of the food administration. To expedite distribution in those communities where a sugar shortage exists the board has arranged to make this surplus available through three central committees. Needs of mid-western communities will be filled by the food administration's sugar distributing committee in Chicago. The Louisiana sugar committee, with offices in New Orleans, will distribute through the south. The eastern or New York committee is the American Refiners' committee, New York City.

and retailers' excises — the so-called luxury taxes—affecting clothing, personal equipment and similar items.

Supplying the tariff laws with "teeth" to protect American industry against foreign attack.

Enactments to facilitate American enterprise through the expansion of shipping.

Tariff changes to protect special new industries brought into being by the war—such as the dyestuffs industry.

Reductions in war-time excess profits taxes and the simplification of tax collection regulations.

A policy designed to insure the successful operation of the many strong and well equipped chemical plants fostered during the war.

The realization of Secretary Lane's plans for providing work and lands for returned soldiers.

Things Undone.

All these recommendations constitute a catalog of things which the Republican majority could have done and should have done, but has not done, in the extra sesion.

Speaker Gillett, in an interview on April 8, last, said it was an outrage that congress was not then in session to adjust the railroad and shipping situations. Senator Penrose, "boss" of the senate, on May 10, announced as his program the immediate repeal of the "luxury taxes," the establishment of a budget system, the simplification of tax laws, etc.

President Wilson furnished to the Republican leaders the occasion and opportunity when he submitted his message to congress in May. But after a little more than two months the Republican leaders of one branch of congress voted a recess from the work of avoiding action. The president has given them another chance by recalling them into session.

Catarrh Is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century.

MISSOURI RETAIL MERCHANTS ARE NOT PROFITEERING

Atty. Gen. McAllister Says the Retailers Are Not Making Excessive Profits in This State

Jefferson City, Aug. 20.—Attorney General Frank W. McAllister in a statement just made public declares that on basis of foodstuffs he is unable to find that Missouri retail merchants are making unreasonable profits.

The statement of the attorney general is as follows:

"More than two weeks ago I undertook an investigation to determine whether the prevalent high prices, especially of the basic food commodities such as sugar, coffee, flour, bacon, lard, butter, eggs, potatoes and a few lines of canned goods, are due to price-fiixng combinations among retail dealers.

"In connection with the investigation I sent specially prepared blanks to practically all prosecuting attorneys in the state, requesting actual figures on the retail price of the food products named on the first day of July in each year since 1914. Reports already made show that the retail prices of practically every one of these commodities has doubled since 1915. They also invariably show the greatest increases on the products controlled by the packers and on flour, which have practically trebled during this period.

"So far I have discovered very few instances of a retailer making excessive profits on these articles.

"I am also gathering information as to the actual wholesale prices of the articles named in various sections of the state. From this data I think it can be pretty well determined whether the present high prices are due to excessive profits by the retailer or to profits made by manufacturer or wholesaler and added to the cost to the retailer.

"As a part of its anti- trust law, Missouri has an anti-discrimination statute, which prohibits the sale of an article at a loss price in one locality than it is sold at in others, and I am also collecting data to determine whether the violation of this statute has contributed to bring about present conditions. When evidence of violations is secured proceedings will be promptly instituted by the attorney general's office."

Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

15c

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

IF ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley-leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts,
Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

M. U. TRAINS TEACHERS OF VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE.

Thirty-five Schools Make Application for Teachers in Trades and Home Economics.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 20.—Thirty-five Missouri schools have made application to the University of Missouri for teachers of vocational agriculture for the coming year. This work is being organized under the Smith-Hughes Act, which provides for vocational instruction not only in agriculture but also in the trades and home economics.

The University of Missouri is the only institution in Missouri which has been officially designated for the training of teachers in this vocational work. Teachers qualifying for these positions must have a degree in agriculture and a certain amount of work in the School of Education, or must have had at least thirty hours of college agriculture with experience in teaching. At least two years of continuous farm experience is required in either case. The instructors must know agriculture from the practical standpoint. The University College of Agriculture and School of Education have arranged special curricula for those who wish to specialize in this work.

The salaries being paid are attractive and the experience offers opportunity for these men to train for county agent work and practical agriculture.

Five lines of work will be placed in schools. In addition to agriculture and economics, there will be all-day trade schools established in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph. Evening schools and part-time schools will also be established.

Two More Farm Sales.

PEDOMETER SHOWS ELEPHANT WALKED 18 MILES IN ONE DAY

Consider a circus menagerie; then sock into memory and find the thought that usually comes with the entrance into the tent. The little boy with the red necktie will please answer. Correct. Thank you.

The poor animals never get any exercise. And that is just where the mistake comes in concerning menagerie. For the animals really get more exercise than they need—if they care to take it. Incidentally that statement brings a proof in a happening in the Yankee Robinson Big Three Ring Wild Animal Circus, which is coming to Maryville for a one day's stay, Saturday, August 30.

Jennie, the leader of the elephant herd, and by the way, one of the largest in captivity, is a walker. Constantly on the move, back and forth, and stretching her leg chain to its limit until Jerry Irvin, the head elephant man, became curious. One day just out of curiosity he placed a pedometer on Jennie's gigantic neck. That night when she stretched out for sleep in her luxurious apartments in the elephants' car, Jerry Irvin looked at the pedometer. The little instrument showed that she had walked eighteen miles that day.

Incidentally, Jennie bears the distinction of being the oldest elephant in the United States and naturally will apear in the performance and in the morning parade here.

DAILY DEMOCRAT-FORUM

NEWS DISPATCHES FROM THE INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

VOLUME 10 — MARYVILLE, MISSOURI WEDNESDAY, AUG. 20, 1919 — NO. 61

IS A FELONY TO STEAL MOTOR CAR

CRIME CHANGED FROM A MISDEMEANOR TO A FELONY RECENTLY.

M'CAFFREY TO BE FIRM

Says That all Convicted of Theft of Motor Vehicles "Will Get the Limit."

Prosecuting Attorney Charles McCaffrey today issues a warning to those inclined to steal automobiles. Drastic steps are to be taken soon to put an end to theft of cars and all persons found guilty will be given the limit in the matter of punishment.

The laws of Missouri, relating to motor cars, were changed by the last legislature. The section dealing with this part of the law reads:

"Any person using, operating, driving, injuring, tampering with a motor vehicle shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than three months nor more than twelve months, or imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years, or both such fine and imprisonment."

The above section differs from the old statute in that the crime of automobile theft is made a felony instead of a misdemeanor, which raises the punishment to a penitentiary offense and much greater in the eyes of the law.

Another section of the law, regarding altering of factory numbers, reads:

Whoever removes, defaces, covers, alters, or destroys the manufacturer's serial number, or any distinguishing number or identification mark of any motor vehicle for the purpose of misinterpreting the identity of such motor vehicle, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years, or by a fine not exceeding $500, or by confinement in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment."

There are many other provisions in the amended statute that make the stealing and driving of cars without the consent of the owner an offense that can be punished by penitentiary sentence and heavy fines.

The authorities over the state are making ready to get people who persist in taking cars that are not their own and are not going to show the least bit of leniency in the matter of giving the culprits the greatest punishment the law allows.

WHEAT ACREAGE UNCERTAIN

Price Guarantee Expires This Year—Drouth Makes Plowing Difficult

Jefferson City, Aug. 20.—According to Jewell Mayes, secretary of the Missouri State Board of Agriculture, there is much uncertainty at this time as to the acreage of wheat that will be planted this fall in Missouri. Expiration of the guarantee of the government price this year and the present difficult conditions of preparing the ground for seeding are factors in the uncertainty. The drouth has made plowing in some sections difficult except where tractors are used under stimulus of the guarantee and the call for increased production an unprecedented acreage was planted in the fall of 1918. There will be a great falling off this year in the acreage.

G. O. P. CONGRESS FAILS TO ACT

THREE MONTHS WITHOUT ACTION ON IMPORTANT LEGISLATION

DID NOT EARN A REST

Nevertheless, the Republican House Members Were Very Eager to Take Vacation.

Washington, D. C.—By their vote to adjourn for five weeks, Republican leaders of the House of Representatives have called the country's attention to the failure of Congress to legislate upon any of the vital problems which President Wilson recommended for action in his message last May—including his proposal for a new labor program leading to genuine cooperation and partnership based on a community of interest and participation in the control of industry.

On the very eve of the recess which they contemplated, Republican leaders emphasized their unwillingness or their inability to respond to popular demands and necessities by blocking a resolution introduced by Representative Igoe (Democrat) to authorize an investigation into the high cost of living. Speaker Gillett and Floor Leader Mondell acted in concert to prevent the adoption of the resolution.

President Wilson's letter to Speaker Gillett, Majority Leader Mondell and Chairman Esch of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce urging them to continue the sessions of the House that action might be taken with respect to the railroads and the high cost of living brought them to grudging compliance coupled with criticism. The recess of five weeks was abandoned, but instead the House was adjourned for three days, during which the inquiry suggested by Representative Igoe was delayed.

Hadn't Earned a Vacation.

When the Republicans voted to take their "vacation," the kind and extent of the labors by which the House of Representatives had earned the right to rest at once became the subject of inquiry. There was a general call for an accounting. It became plain that Congress—and would have been enpractically the only bills which had passed were those which could have been passed in the last session of Congress—and would have been enacted but for the Republican filibuster in the Senate last March.

The public harked back to President Wilson's message. It was found that none of his recommendations had been embodied in legislation. The needs and the opportunity presented to the Republicans in this message were great indeed, but the majority in Congress has done nothing to translate them into law.

Here are the salient proposals addressed by President Wilson to a majority which had been clamoring for an extra session and a chance to begin "reconstruction":

A new labor program contemplating genuine co-operation and partnership based on a community of interest in industry and participation in control.

Legislation for the solution of the railroad problem.

Revision of war taxation, particularly the abolition of manufacturers'

GEORGE W. BUTLER HELD FOR FORGERY

"NEEDED THE MONEY"

Defendant Was on Parole From Former Offense—He Has Been in Other Serious Scrapes

Charged with forgery, George W. Butler will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge W. L. Johnson tomorrow morning at nine o'clock on a charge preferred by R. L. Brown.

Two checks were forged by the defendant, one for $24.80 being cashed by the Montgomery Shoe company on August 11 and another for $18.50 cashed by F. P. Reuillard on the same date. The first check is the one specified in the charge. Both were First National bank checks made payable to himself, and bore the forged signature of R. L. Brown.

According to the prosecuting witness, Butler had done some work for him recently and had about twenty dollars due him. Brown had been out of town and on his return offered to pay Butler what was due. Butler then confessed that he had "needed the money" and had forged the checks, but promised to make them good, saying that he was working at Behm's restaurant and would have the money soon. On investigation Brown found that Butler had not and had never been employed at the restaurant. He at once reported the matter to the authorities and Butler was arrested yesterday afternoon.

Butler has a police record already, having ben convicted two years ago of operating a motor car without the owner's consent. He was fined $500 at that time but was paroled by Judge Dawson. The parole was revoked today. It was on the technical charge of breaking parole that he was detained while investigations were made on the forgery charge.

In addition to forging the checks, on Brown, Butler attempted about two weeks ago to cash a check on the Farmers Trust Company where he did not have an account. This check was cashed by the Superior Cleaning company, but has been made good.

Butler has been mixed up in several other serious scrapes in this vicinity and in other parts of the country. He is married and has one child.

The defendant's father, Charles Butler, will arrive tonight from Iowa and will be present at the hearing tomorrow morning.

GLOBE-TROTTER AND PROSPECTOR HERE

A. C. LANGAN OF NEW YORK IS GUEST OF UNCLE

IS A WORLD TRAVELER

Was With Scott on North Pole Expedition and Was in Berlin When World War Broke Out

A. C. Langan, globe trotter, explorer, soldier of fortune, is the guest today of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Langan, and his cousin, Miss Grace Langan, at the Langan home on West Second street, arriving last night from the oil fields of Oklahoma and Texas.

Mr. Langan is a confirmed traveler, having crossed the ocean twenty-one times and visited in all parts of the world. In an interview with a Democrat-Forum reporter this morning Mr. Langan talked interestingly of his experiences in thirty years of world travel.

"I was in Berlin in August, 1914, when the war broke out, arriving there from St. Petersburg only a few days before the news came," said Mr. Langan. "I worked my way through the German lines to Brest, and from there to Paris, remaining there until the the great German advance when they came within a few miles of Paris. Then I came to London and from there to the United States. Americans were treated very well in the warring countries in those early days of the war."

Mr. Langan has only recently returned from South America, where he was in command of a trading expedition to secure platinum, of which the country is in serious need. "This was the most thrilling of my many experiences," said the explorer. "I had two vessels when I left New York. We ran into a hurricane off Key West, and the larger of the two vessels, our cargo ship, was lost. She went down in twenty minutes and nothing was saved except the crew. In the other vessel, a smaller boat than that used by Jack London in his famous trip across the ocean, we battled the hurricane for seven days, finally landing safely, after traveling more than 5,000 miles in a boat large enough only for passengers provisions and coal."

Mr. Langan was returning from a trip to South America when the armistice was signed. His ship, the Heredia, was the first in more than a year to enter New York Harbor with lights ablaze. New York newspapers made prominent mention of this at the time.

When questioned as to the sentiment on the league of nations, Mr. Langan gave it as his opinion that the league in its present form is better than nothing, though there will still be hard sledding for the peace makers. In regard to hostile feeling in Japan, he branded these reports as jingoism, pure and simple.

Speaking of his experiences as a prospector Mr. Langan said, "I have been in every mining camp in the country and in the midst of every oil boom. I was the first prospector to put down my stakes at Rawhide. Things panned out well until the big fire, when all my buildings, the electric light plant, and other enterprises in which I was interested, were destroyed. We went over the hill broke. Merely one of the ups and downs in the prospecor's life."

The prospector-globe trotter started his roving career early. At the age of twelve he "hit the road" and in the succeeding thirty years has been all over the world. He has "crossed the water" twenty-one times, and has been from South America almost to the North Pole. He was second in command on Captain Scott's famous northern expedition, which penetrated eighty-four degrees north. The expedition rescued the lost expedition of Capt. John Bartlett.

Mr. Langan comes from a family of pioneers. Both his father, Jim Langan, and his uncle, William Langan of this city, were in the westward migration in '61. A brother, Owen, is also a rover, being in the mining camps at Tonapah, Nevada, at present, and a sister lives in Honolula.

Mr. Langan left this afternoon for a visit to the newly opened oil fields in Oklahoma and Texas.

Miss Craig Departs.

Miss Laura Craig left last Friday for Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will begin her second year in social service work. She will be joined in a few weeks by her mother, Mrs. Gallatin Craig, and brother, Albert Craig.

NO OBJECTIONS TO RESERVATIONISTS

WILSON MEETS THE REPUBLICAN SENATORS ON THEIR GROUND

PRESIDENT DELAYS TRIP

Will Not Start on Speaking Tour Until Foreign Relations Committee Reports on Treaty

Washington, Aug. 20 — President Wilson has given his approval of substance of reservations urged by the group of Republican mild reservationists. Senator Pittman, administration Democrat member of the foreign relations committee, declared this afternoon in the Senate that in stating to the committee at the White House yesterday he had no objections to the interpretations, if they were not embodied in the ratification of the resolution." Thepresident has met the reservationists more than half way," Pittman said.

It was said in White House circles today that the date on which President Wilson will start on his proposed speaking tour now depends to a great extent upon how soon the senate foreign relations committee reports on the peace treaty.

It is reported that the president is unwilling to leave Washington until the treaty is reported on by the committee.

CLOSE IN ON MEXICAN BANDITS

EIGHTH CAVALRY NEARS RENDEZVOUS OF KIDNAPPERS

CAPTURE IS EXPECTED

Marauding Band Has Been Located by U. S. Army Aviators Acting as Scouts

El Paso, Aug. 20.—With the band of Mexicans who kidnapped two American aviators reported spotted by U. S. army fliers acting as scouts, troops of the Eighth cavalry are now believed to be closing in on the bandit rendezvous, and word of the capture or killing of the entire band is expected hourly at Marfa, according to word received here today.

It was reported that the bandits were seen near Candelaria, Texas, by aviators. It was reported that the aviators dropped several bombs on the fleeing bandits, but the report has not been verified.

Camp Travis, San Antonio, Texas, Aug. 20.—An American machine gunner kiled one Mexican bandit and wounded a second today when several Mexicans fired at his airplane, twenty miles south of Marfa, Texas. The killing of the Mexican was reported in a telegram received by General Dickman, commanding the Southern department, from Colonel Langhorne, who is directing the movement of the soldiers in Mexico. The aviator reported that when the Mexicans fired on him he returned their fire, killing one, wounding one and driving the others to refuge. Several of the shots fired by the Mexicans pierced the wings of the airplane.

ILLINOIS MAN SAYS HE LOST FORTY POUNDS

"This Tanlac has almost made a new man of me and all my friends and neighbors for blocks around will tell you the same thing," said J. A. Smith, a well known Galesburg man.

"Twenty-eight years ago," continued Mr. Smith in describing his case, "I began to lose my appetite and have slight attacks of indigestion. My head ached now and then and some nights my sleep was disturbed by rehumatic pains. I paid little attention to these symptons then, thinking I would soon throw them off, but I have wished a thousand times since that I had, for I certainly paid dearly for neglecting them, later on my stomach got in such a bad shape that I could hardly eat anything without bloating all up with gas and having pains that almost took my breath away. Then the rheumatism which I had been now and then for several years, started up right. I suffered so that I couldn't rest at night and my knees hurt me so bad that I would have to sit around for days at a time and rub with hot liniments trying to get a little ease. Pains like a bad tootache would shoot through my shoulders and finally I was forced to stop work. I was making good money as line-man for the Western Union Telegraph Company and hated to give up my job, but I simply couldn't stand up under the work any longer. In fact, I was out of fix all over and just about as sick and run-down as a man gets to be, and I venture to say that during those twenty-eight years I paid out all of six thousand dollars for medicines that did me no more good than that much water.

"Up to the time I began taking Tanlac I had lost forty pounds in weight, but I have gotten every pound of that back and five pounds besides, and I am now as strong and well as I have been in thirty years. I can sit down and eat as big a meal as I ever could and I am absolutely free from all pain. Even the renumatism is gone and I don't believe anyone could feel much better than I do."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Carter Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. SURPLUS SUGAR SOLD FOR DOMESTIC NEEDS

Washington, Aug. 20.—Transfer of approximately 35,000,000 pounds of sugar to the sugar equalization board for domestic consumption has been announced by the war department. This amount represents the surplus army supply at this time and is in addition to 21,000,000 pounds transferred to the board early in July. The war department will receive 8.79 cents per pound, the cost price of the sugar. The transfer was made with the stipulation that none of it should be sold for export.

All details of establishing a price and the allocation and distribution of the sugar will be handled by the sugar equalization board, a branch of the food administration. To expedite distribution in those communities where a sugar shortage exists the board has arranged to make this surplus available through three central committees. Needs of mid-western communities will be filled by the food administration's sugar distributing committee in Chicago. The Louisiana sugar committee, with offices in New Orleans, will distribute through the south. The eastern or New York committee is the American Refiners' committee, New York City.

Over chocolate icre cream soda I had

While to like it I was trying, softly

As of someone gently crying, crying

Then I saw a crimson raven, weeping

The realization of Secretary Lane's plans for providing work and lands for returned soldiers.

Things Undone.

All these recommendations constitute a catalog of things which the Republican majority could have done and should have done, but has not done, in the extra sesion.

Speaker Gillett, in an interview on April 8, last, said it was an outrage that congress was not then in session to adjust the railroad and shipping situations. Senator Penrose, "boss" of the senate, on May 10, announced as his program the immediate repeal of the "luxury taxes," the establishing them into session.

ment of a budget system, the simplification of tax laws, etc.

President Wilson furnished to the Republican leaders the occasion and opportunity when he submitted his message to congress in May. But after a little more than two months the Republican leaders of one branch of congress voted a recess from the work of avoiding action. The president has given them another chance by recall-

Catarrh Is a Real Enemy and Requires Vigorous Treatment

When you use medicated sprays, atomizers and douches for your Catarrh, you may succeed in unstopping the choked-up air passages for the time being, but this annoying condition returns, and you have to do the same thing over and over again.

Catarrh has never yet been cured by these local applications. Have you ever experienced any real benefit from such treatment?

Throw these makeshift remedies to the winds, and get on the right treatment. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today, and commence a treatment that has been praised by sufferers for nearly half a century.

MISSOURI RETAIL MERCHANTS ARE NOT PROFITEERING

Atty. Gen. McAllister Says the Retailers Are Not Making Excessive Profits In This State

Jefferson City, Aug. 20.—Attorney General Frank W. McAllister in a statement just made public declares that on basis of foodstuffs he is unable to find that Missouri retail merchants are making unreasonable profits.

The statement of the attorney general is as follows:

"More than two weeks ago I undertook an investigation to determine whether the prevalent high prices, especially of the basic food commodities such as sugar, coffee, flour, bacon, lard, butter, eggs, potatoes and a few lines of canned goods, are due to price-fiixng combinations among retail dealers.

"In connection with the investigation I sent specially prepared blanks to practically all prosecuting attorneys in the state, requesting actual figures on the retail price of the food products named on the first day of July in each year since 1914. Reports already made show that the retail prices of practically every one of these commodities has doubled since 1915. They also invariably show the greatest increases on the products controlled by the packers and on flour, which have practically trebled during this period.

"So far I have discovered very few instances of a retailer making excessive profits on these articles.

"I am also gathering information as to the actual wholesale prices of the articles named in various sections of the state. From this data I think it can be pretty well determined whether the present high prices are due to excessive profits by the retailer or to profits made by manufacturer or wholesaler and added to the cost to the retailer.

"As a part of its anti- trust law, Missouri has an anti-discrimination statute, which prohibits the sale of an article at a loss price in one locality than it is sold at in others, and I am also collecting data to determine whether the violation of this statute has contributed to bring about present conditions. When evidence of violations is secured proceedings will be promptly instituted by the attorney general's office."

Now All You Good Fellows, Come Fill Up Your Pipes

The Velvet tin is twice as big as shown here

15c

IF ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley-leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts,
Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

M. U. TRAINS TEACHERS OF VOCATIONAL AGRICULTURE.

Thirty-five Schools Make Application for Teachers in Trades and Home Economics.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 20.—Thirty-five Missouri schools have made application to the University of Missouri for teachers of vocational agriculture for the coming year. This work is being organized under the Smith-Hughes Act, which provides for vocational instruction not only in agriculture but also in the trades and home economics.

The University of Missouri is the only institution in Missouri which has been officially designated for the training of teachers in this vocational work. Teachers qualifying for these positions must have a degree in agriculture and a certain amount of work in the School of Education, or must have had at least thirty hours of college agriculture with experience in teaching. At least two years of continuous farm experience is required in either case. The instructors must know agriculture from the practical standpoint. The University College of Agriculture and School of Education have arranged special curricula for those who wish to specialize in this work.

The salaries being paid are attractive and the experience offers opportunity for these men to train for county agent work and practical agriculture.

Five lines of work will be placed in schools. In addition to agriculture and economics, there will be all-day trade schools established in St. Louis, Kansas City and St. Joseph. Evening schools and part-time schools will also be established.

Two More Farm Sales.

THAT CHANGE IN WOMAN'S LIFE

Mrs. Godden Tells How It May be Passed in Safety and Comfort.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run down condition, so it was hard for me to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my troubles, which it surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared." — Mrs. M. GODDEN, 925 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Such annoying symptons as heat flashes, nervousnsss, backache, headache, irritability and "the blues," may be speedily overcome and the system restored to normal conditions by this famous root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If any complications present themselves write the Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions how to overcome them. The result of forty years experience is at your service and your letter held in strict confidence.

PEDOMETER SHOWS ELEPHANT WALKED 18 MILES IN ONE DAY

Consider a circus menagerie; then sock into memory and find the thought that usually comes with the entrance into the tent. The little boy with the red necktie will please answer. Correct. Thank you.

The poor animals never get any exercise. And that is just where the mistake comes in concerning menagerie. For the animals really get more exercise than they need—if they care to take it. Incidentally that statement brings a proof in a happening in the Yankee Robinson Big Three Ring Wild Animal Circus, which is coming to Maryville for a one day's stay, Saturday, August 30.

Jennie, the leader of the elephant herd, and by the way, one of the largest in captivity, is a walker. Constantly on the move, back and forth, and stretching her leg chain to its limit until Jerry Irvin, the head elephant man, became curious. One day just out of curiosity he placed a pedometer on Jennie's gigantic neck. That night when she stretched out for sleep in her luxurious apartments in the elephants" car, Jerry Irvin looked at the pedometer. The little instrument showed that she had walked eighteen miles that day.

Incidentally, Jennie bears the distinction of being the oldest elephant in the United States and naturally will apear in the performance and in the morning parade here.
